6. PUBLIC COMMENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

- Stephanie Busan, Vector Control Technician for the District provided an overview of the Hoarding Situation in San Mateo County. An excellent handout was provided to the Board Members for use in their cities and county residents.
- Trustee Leon Nickolas also provided an overview of his participation on the San Mateo County Task Force for Hoarding. A general discussion resulted around the District’s involvement with various City and County’s agencies working toward helping residents with hoarding issues.

7. BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

- President Honan received a letter from the District’s Employee Association dated June 8, 2011. The District Employee Association has filed and received status from the State of California as the “Peninsula Vector Workers Association.”
- Trustee Valentina Cogoni, Secretary attended the AMCA Legislative Day in Washington DC.
Trustee Cogoni outlined the Washington Legislators and Staff that were visited. Discussion emphasized the District’s operations on the peninsula with prevention and outreach. Trustee Cogoni stressed how the California Legislators and staffers were less than informed of our mosquito surveillance and control operations on the peninsula and spent a great deal of time educating them on our services. It was considered very successful.

- Trustee Samuel Lerner, Vice-President attended the AMCA Legislative Day in Washington DC.
  - Trustee Lerner emphasized the work with trying to pass HR 872. Trustee Lerner noted a comment from a Senior Staffer with Senator Sam Farr with the discussion around HR 872 that the benefits of the NPDES Permit will not override the costs.

8. AGENDA AMENDMENTS

- No amendments.
