11. REGULAR AGENDA:

Motion for the letter of communication with Trustee appointing authority was approved earlier in the meeting during closed session (See agenda item #4)

12. FINANCIAL REPORT:

Finance Director, Rosendo Rodriguez, provided verbal and written reports on the financials and overview of the administrative programs. He made a brief report stating overall finances looked good, any pesticide purchase in the Agriculture Account over $7,000 will be brought before the Board for approval, and that an emergency pesticide purchase may be necessary if the district’s inventory is too low on urgently needed treatment on Bair Island.

Motion to approve the financial report, Riechel, 2nd Ridgeway, passed unanimously 19-0.

13. MANAGER’S REPORT:

Manager Gay indicated that a complete report of all the activities is included in this evening’s Manager’s Report handout. Highlights included Legislative, MVCAC, VCJPA, AMCA, CSDA, LAFCO, bed bug infestations, dead bird updates, and an update on administrative/financial controls.

14. BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:

• Board members who attended the Burlingame MVCAC meeting in February gave brief reports; others stated they would provide a written report. Talks that were particularly popular were the Trustee breakfast, Ralph Heim’s California
Legislative update, Preventing Sexual Harassment training, and our staff’s presentations.

- Trustees Ridgeway, Lerner, and Honan gave reports on the AMCA meeting in Austin, Texas, in February which they found educational and enjoyable.
- President Lerner and Manager Gay asked if any Trustee would be interested in participating on the LAFCO Board as an alternate member.

15. OATHS OF OFFICE:

- None. County Council stated that Trustees need only take the oath of office once during the 1st term and it does not need to be re-administered during the rest of the term of office served. It is only ceremonial to re-administer the oath with a Trustees reappointment from their appointing authority.

16. NEXT REGULAR SCHEDULED BOARD MEETING:

- Next meeting on April 11, 2012

Motion by Fuller, 2nd Metz, unanimous vote 19-0

- Motion to hold meetings at 6PM instead 7PM beginning in April 2012.
